

50¢ off gas? It's madness!

If you're looking for cheap gas, head to Warden and Eglinton Aves. Friday morning.

But if you're looking for a smooth ride in to the office, avoid the intersection.

The pump price at Tru-Value Gas bar at 933 Warden will drop 50 cents at 8 a.m., as part of an online travel company's marketing blitz promoting its new price-drop protection plan.

Motorists will be allowed to buy up to 50 litres of fuel at the discounted price.

Don't get greedy as gas can fillups won't be allowed.

The promo will last until 20,000 litres of fuel is bought.

"We think we'll be able to gas up 400 cars," FlightNetwork.com spokesman Jamil Al Jabri said.

He expects the gas will sell out in about four to five hours.

"We have hired security, and will have people on hand to direct traffic," Al Jabri said.

— Irene Thomaidis